

Hi folks,

it's that time again. After two years and some months, we're back in business.

We'll meet at BJ's restaurant on October 11, at our usual time, beginning at 5:30 PM. The program will begin at 7:00, and our raffle will begin at 8:00.

We have a really great raffle for all of you, and I'm sure you will enjoy Bryan Dufresne's program "The Illimitable Joy of the Annual Fishing Trip". If you are interested, check out some of his adventures on Instagram @got_out.

I'm looking forward to seeing a lot of old friends, and some new ones. I know there is a lot of interest in the club, and there will be a lot of new faces to meet and greet.

If you are planning on attending, please make sure to talk to someone new. That is after all, the purpose of the club. To make new friends with similar interests. In this case, fly fishing.

It's exciting to me to welcome newcomers to the club. That said, we'll not collect dues until January so there is time for anyone who's interested, to check us out.

BIO: Bryan Dufresne

Bryan is a lifetime Bitterrooter and fly fisherman who teaches English in Darby, MT. Recently, Bryan began to fuse his two passions- language and flyfishing- by sharing his adventures with the readers of The Ravalli Republic and Northwest Fly Fishing.

PROGRAM TITLE: The Illimitable Joy of the Annual Fishing Trip, Bryan will explore how peppering his life with annual fishing trips has given him enough memories to fill the night air of a thousand campfires. Along with finding himself waste deep in some of the most magical places on Earth, the annual trip has led to new friendships, new fishing destinations, new fishing knowledge, and opened the door to sharing his adventures through freelance writing.
